Preamble

Background

In December 1971 a meeting was held to examine the need for opening a Christian school in the Diamond Valley. Over the next few years, a small group of people documented a vision for a radically different kind of school to any of the state or private schools in the area and in 1976 after much prayer and discernment, an Association was incorporated under the principles enunciated in the Educational Creed.

Through these founding families and by God's providential grace Plenty Valley Christian College was established at Mernda in 1981, where schooling began with an initial intake of fifteen students, and then in 1983 the college moved to the Doreen site.

Education

Plenty Valley Christian Education Ltd is a member of Christian Education National, whose members provide education through Christian schools and other Christian education enterprises. Acknowledging Christ as Saviour and King of the whole of human life we continue to be a Christian organisation in which Christ is honoured by all study being undertaken in the light of God's revelation in the Old and New Testaments, by prayer and by study of the Bible. Because God has created all things our education aims to equip students to engage in all parts of life and society. Because of the biblical understanding of the fall of mankind our education seeks to enable students to understand that the world is not as God intended it to be; and because of the hope of redemption and ultimate restoration of this world, our education prompts students to engage in transforming the world. Such distinctively Christian education is the focus of our membership within Christian Education National.

Biblical basis

We have articulated what "Christian" means in a Statement of Faith that is grounded in Christian Scripture and that which forms an integral part of this constitution. We act and operate in a manner that is consistent with the Statement of Faith and by the principles laid down in the Educational Creed in this constitution.

Parental responsibility and partnership

We believe that children are a gift from God to parents whom He holds responsible for their nurture. We share the conviction that God has given parents corresponding authority to guide and direct their children in ways pleasing to Him, including in their education. God has provided and equipped teachers, educators, administrators and others to work in partnership with parents in Christian community, where all members have vital roles to play as they fulfil their God-given gifts and responsibilities.

We believe that schools are most effective where the educational task is carried out by believers working in community. We also believe that schools are most faithful to God's ordering of creation when, in their governance and operation, parents retain primary responsibility for, and authority over, the education of their children.

Therefore, in our organisations, Christian parents are welcomed to participate in the life of the School and are encouraged to contribute to the governing body through membership or in other constructive ways.

Christian education and the state

As a matter of justice, Governments have an obligation to ensure that education is freely available to all children and young people regardless of race, gender, religion, socio-economic status, ability or locality. This includes an obligation to fund equitably Christian schools where parents are not able to accept any form of education that fails to acknowledge Christ at its centre. Therefore, we claim all freedom in the field of education so long as this education takes place in obedience to God's Word and in adherence to the legitimate standards and provisions of democratic governments.

An item of business may not be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to consider it. If a quorum is present at the time the first item of business is transacted, it is taken to be present when the meeting proceeds to consider each subsequent item of business unless the Chairman of the meeting (on the Chairman's own motion or at the request of a Member or proxy who is present) declares otherwise.

9.4 If quorum not present

If within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for a meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting:

- (a) if convened by a Director or at the request of Members, is dissolved, and

Neither the Chairman nor the minutes need state and it is not necessary to prove the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

If a poll is demanded:

- (a) it must be taken in the manner and at the date and time directed by the Chairman and the result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded,

A Member will be entitled to instruct his proxy to vote in favour of or against any proposed resolutions., The proxy may vote as he thinks fit unless otherwise instructed.

38 Schedule 1 – Statement of Faith

We believe in -

1. One God eternally existing in three persons; Father, Son and the Holy Spirit.
2. The sovereignty of God in creation, providence, redemption, revelation and final judgement.
3. The Divine inspiration of the original documents of the Bible, its entire trustworthiness, sufficiency and supreme authority in all matters of faith and conduct.
4. The Deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in his atoning death on the cross as our representative and substitute, and only sin-bearer, in His bodily resurrection, His ascension to the right hand of the Father, in His mediatorial work and His personal, visible return in power and glory.
5. The sinfulness and guilt of all mankind, that has rendered them subject to God's wrath and condemnation.
6. Justification of the sinner by grace of God through personal faith in Christ alone and regeneration by the Holy Spirit.
7. The receiving and indwelling of the Holy Spirit at conversion and His continuing work in the heart and life of the believer.
8. The only holy Universal Church of which Christ is the Head, to which all true believers belong.
9. The bodily resurrection and judgement of all mankind.

39 Schedule 2 – Educational Creed

(i) As a community united in Christ for the education of youth we confess with the Church universal that:

There is one God eternal and indivisible in whom are three Persons Father, Son and Holy Spirit, which three Persons are really truly and eternally distinct, each one truly God, yet without in any way destroying the unity of the one and only God who is one and not three.

This one God is the Creator of all things visible and invisible;

Man was created in the image of God with dominion over the creation;

Man sinned by disobeying the express command of God so repudiating his Creator and bringing God's wrath and curse on himself and on the whole creation over which he rules;

By the curse of sin justly imposed every man is cut off from communion with God and is dead in sin wholly corrupt throughout the whole man and utterly indisposed disabled and made opposite to all good and wholly inclined to all evil;

God in his love for the world sent His only son Jesus Christ our Lord to be born of the virgin Mary being conceived by the Holy Spirit to live and suffer on this earth as a man under the curse of sin to endure the fullness of God's curse on sin in His death on the cross as a ransom for many laying down His life for the sheep so that all who believe in Him should receive without regards to their works of merit full and free pardon the riches of God's favour as his sons and heirs and eternal life in Christ being renewed by the Holy Spirit in Christ's likeness;

The Lord Jesus Christ having died for our sins rose again on the third day by the power of God ascended to heaven and is now seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty who has put all things in subjection under his feet appointing him to be Head of all things to the Church which is his Body;

At the time appointed by God and known to no man this very same Jesus shall come the second time in power and great glory to judge all men living and dead and having destroyed this present world to establish the new heavens and new earth in which righteousness has permanent home;

When the Lord Jesus comes again all the dead shall be raised bodily those who by faith have done well to eternal life and those who through unbelief have done evil to eternal condemnation;

The risen Christ has sent the Holy Spirit into the world that by Him redemption might be effectually applied the divine purpose of salvation accomplished and the Church equipped for its mission on earth;

The redemptive activity and gracious favour of God the Father Son and Holy Spirit is essential for the fulfilment of man's life.

(ii) We confess that:

The Scripture of the Old and New Testaments acknowledged in the confessions of the Reformation is in all things our supreme standard by which all we do is to be judged;

This Scripture written by men moved by the Holy Spirit is itself God's Word written God himself being the author;

Scripture is the integral divine Word by which God through his Spirit draws us to and enlightens us in the truth which is Christ Jesus our Lord the eternal Word of God;

The same eternal Word who reveals himself in Scripture reveals himself in all that he has created so that the revelation of God is one;

Scripture is indispensable and determinative for our knowledge of God of ourselves and of the rest of the creation and also for the whole educational task.

(iii) We confess that:

Man as God's image bearer is given dominion over the creation to rule it manage it and develop it for God who is King over Kings and Lord over Lords;

Man's life is fulfilled only in a life of free willing submission to God; a life lived in harmony with the law of God for his creation made known in the integral revelation of the Word of God;

Being now fallen into sin man can attain this fulfilment only through renewal by the Holy Spirit after the image of his creator;

For man to attempt anything at all in independence of God or in ignorance of God's revelation is inherently destructive of man and of the creation over which he is given dominion;

It is man's glory as God's image bearer to do everything so that the glory of God is revealed in his doing;

The development of the child as the image bearer of God is a central concern of the educational task.

(iv) We confess that:

Human life in its entirety is religion unfolding itself as service of the one true God or of a God-substitute;

In sin man has repudiated God in favour of God-substitutes with the result that he is cut off from the knowledge of God himself and of the meaning of the creation so that the light he supposes he has is darkness and his wisdom is folly;

Apart from the man Christ Jesus no man is exempted from this falsifying of knowledge through sin but all alike grope in darkness being blinded to the meaning of life of the world and of man himself;

No area of human knowledge is free of this sinful falsifying;

True education is possible only where the fear of God is re-established by God's grace in the heart of man as the indispensable foundation of all wisdom and knowledge.

(v) We confess that:

God in Christ by the Cross has restored the whole creation to harmony with Himself making all things new in Christ;

Although the fulfilment of this restoration awaits the future revelation of Christ in glory yet in principle by the present work of the Holy Spirit in the world it is a present reality to be reckoned with in faith in every area of life;

Christ in His redemption by His Holy Spirit is creating a new regenerated humanity bound in covenant community to Christ as Head;

This covenant community is God's appointed means through the power of the Holy Spirit within the community for communicating the redemption of Christ to the world;

Although by the grace of God men who reject the Word of God as the ordering principle of life provide many valuable insights into the common structure of reality yet the religious direction of their thought remains radically opposed to that of the covenant community in Christ so that there can be no possibility of a synthesis of their systems of thought with the scripturally directed thought which Christ's covenant community is called to pursue.

(vi) We confess that:

The whole cosmos is the creation of God remaining under his government upheld by his power and existing for His glory;

The cosmos is neither chaotic nor meaningless but ordered and pregnant with meaning by the creative act of God graciously preserved and sustained by Him in spite of the disruptive effects of man's sin and subject to the law of the Creator in all things;

It is man's task to unfold the meaning that God the creator has given to the creation;

Man can fulfil his task only as dependent on the Holy Spirit; he functions in subjection to the law by which God orders the creation;

The law of the Creator ensures a rich diversity within the unbreakable unity of the cosmos;

The whole creation finds its coherence and meaning in Christ who is the First and the Last the Beginning and the End of the creation of God;

True education is the unfolding to the child of the creation in harmony with the order and meaning it has in Christ so that the child may be prepared and equipped for his office and calling in this world as God's image bearer and steward.

(vii) We confess that:

The covenant community redeemed in Christ expresses itself in the field of education in the school where Christ is confessed as Head of the educational task in harmony with Scripture;

The school is only one of several ways in which the covenant community expresses itself in this temporal world, each one displaying in a distinctive manner the rich fullness of Christ's redemption;

It is the special task of the school to open out to the child the meaning and structure of the creation under the guidance of the Word of God as part of the equipment of the child for his calling in life in subjection to Christ as King;

In pursuit of its special task, the school is in no sense subordinate or subject to family, church or state or to any other societal structure but to Christ alone who only rules as King over all;

As it expects respect for its own sovereignty under Christ so the school is bound to respect and uphold the sovereignty of family, church and state as well as every other societal structure each in its own sphere under Christ and to encourage such respect in the child;

This respect for the sovereignty of the societal structures under Christ requires that the school direct all its efforts toward its own special task refraining from activities that infringe on the special tasks of the family the church the state or any other societal structure;

The school under Christ and by His Holy Spirit is to advance the reign of Christ on earth in the field of education so that His Kingdom may come to expression here and now, though with much imperfection and weakness and so that our Lord may find us busy in His garden when He comes in glory.

(viii) We confess that:

The school is a community of students, teachers and members of the governing association united in a communal confession of faith in Christ as the Head;

Although parents have a primary responsibility for the education of the child yet as Christ has one Body and as believers are members together of that one Body the task of the school is the responsibility of the whole body of Christ;

Within the school community the student is subject to the authority of the teacher whose legitimate authority is to be upheld by the whole school community;

Authority is never to be exercised or maintained for its own sake but in the school is only to be used for the effective nurture of the child in harmony with the special task of the school and with an awareness that all authority is of God to whom all who exercise authority must give account.

(ix) We confess Christ as King of Kings and Lord of Lords, the Redeemer and Renewer of all our life; and we pursue the educational task together, with confident hope and humble reliance on God who for Jesus' sake, who sends his Holy Spirit to lead us into the truth, which is Christ, and with glad submission to God's Word as the guide of all our endeavour that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belongs the glory and the dominion forever.
